Home Automation, Inc. (HAI) was formed in 1985 to provide automation products to the newly emerging automation and controls market. HAI is responsible for many industry firsts including the first integrated security and automation system on the market and the first Internet remote access and control software for residential use. As HAI's product line has grown, the benefits of merging energy conservation with security and remote access has played a larger part in the core of HAI's efforts. HAI's products are available in over 80 countries worldwide.

Set the Mood, Room by Room

With Hi-Fi by HAI, share your music throughout your home. HAI's audio system can be controlled wirelessly via remote control, wireless Touchscreen, or cellphone for convenience.

HAI's unique Remote Input Modules let you easily plug into sources you already own. It's simple and easy to update to the newest music source—no audio rack or expensive proprietary components required.

While Mom listens to relaxing jazz on satellite radio in the kitchen, Dad can enjoy the game outside as he barbecues. In the meantime, the kids are rocking out upstairs.

Control all A/V sources and the rest of your home from one portable Touchscreen.

View album art and song titles with artist names for all your music.

Remote Input Modules let you easily plug in sources you already own.

Simultaneously adjust lighting and set room temperature for the perfect theater experience.

Complete Home Theater Control

Make movie night a real event for the entire family. Because additional automated features can be integrated for complete environmental control, the presentation is perfectly set every time.

Use one button on a Touchscreen to close the curtains or shades, lower a screen, and turn on the appropriate A/V equipment. Even automatically adjust the lights and set the room temperature for a genuine theater experience.

HAI provides automation solutions that make it easier than ever to tie all your A/V equipment together for remote control from a portable Touchscreen.
